

Filling the Prescription

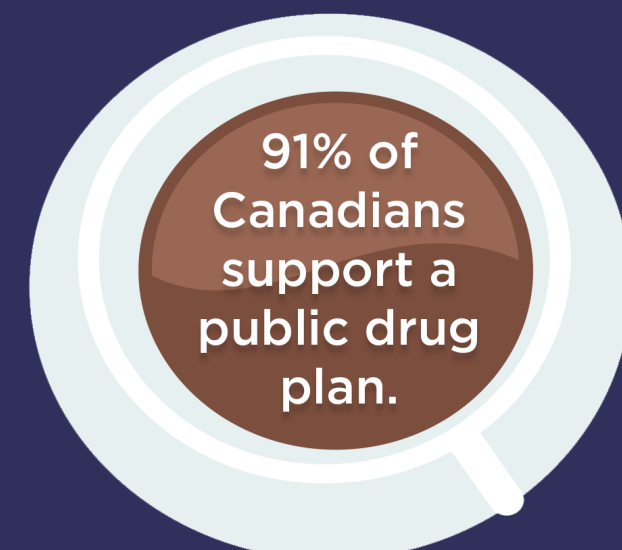

The case for pharmacare now

Universal drug plan cost to government approximately $1 billion.

Universal drug plan could save Canada $9-11 billion.

91% of Canadians support a public drug plan.

Countries with universal coverage spend 60% less per capita than Canada.

Endorsed by more than

280

health experts

1/10

Canadians can't afford to fill their prescriptions.