

2023 Biennium Fun Night Activities

Charlottetown, PEI - June 6th, 2023

1. Deck Party at Peake's Quay Restaurant

Welcome to Charlottetown! Every Islander knows the best place to be in town is on a restaurant patio, enjoying delicious food and soaking up the sun with a refreshing drink. Peake's Quay is taking this summer tradition to the next level by throwing a Deck Party overlooking the Charlottetown Marina on the largest patio in Charlottetown. Watch the boats and kayaks float by as you sip your welcome drink and tap your feet to live Maritime music.

The mouth-watering menu at this Deck Party showcases the local fare that gives PEI the well-earned title of Canada's Food Island. Here, you will gather with new friends and indulge in delicious food, including PEI oysters, mussels, beef, potatoes, lobster and more!

Every perfect Charlottetown night includes a scoop of world-famous Cows Ice Cream, and you can enjoy yours while taking in the stunning sunset views of the Charlottetown waterfront.

No deck party is complete without live music! Finish off your evening dancing to some of the best live music PEI has to offer.

Don't miss this opportunity to experience the best of PEI's culture and cuisine at one of the Island's most beloved venues.

The cost is $70 per person.

2. New Glasgow Lobster Suppers

A trip to PEI isn't complete without a visit to New Glasgow Lobster Suppers. Visitors and locals alike agree that this truly unique dining experience offers the best Island food from both the land and sea.

From savoury appetizers to delicious entrees, you will find seafood delights like steamed Island mussels, fresh fish, seafood chowder and lobster served in the shell, and non-seafood options like Island strip loin steak, chicken supreme, tender ham and hearty vegetarian dishes. Every bite will be a feast for the senses. Save room for one (or two) sweet homemade treats like the famous "mile-high" lemon meringue pie and other delectable desserts. With a wide variety of options to suit all palates, you will find something you love.

New Glasgow Lobster Suppers has been a beloved local business for over 60 years, boasting a rich history of providing patrons with an authentic, unparalleled dining experience. Come hungry and leave satisfied with fantastic food and local music on this night.

Transportation to and from the event will be provided.

The cost is $60.00 per person.

3. Dinner and Music at The Trailside Music Hall

Join us for an evening of great food and live music at the Trailside Music Hall in downtown Charlottetown! This unique venue was built for the live music lover and offers an intimate concert experience you won't forget.

Tonight's main show is the talented and award-winning Island artist Lennie Gallant, who will take you on an exciting journey with his original music. As an internationally touring storyteller and songwriter with strong roots in PEI, Lennie Gallant showcases the musical heritage of his home province and explores the rock and country music genres.

Enjoy a signature cocktail, local brew or glass of wine as you savour a meal brought right to your table during the show. The chef has prepared a delicious menu with fish, chicken and vegetarian options for you to choose from.

Don't miss this special night of great food, live music, and good company.

Guests must select their food option at time of booking:

Pan Fried Haddock with Creamy Cucumber Dill Sauce
with basmati rice and spring vegetable medley

Greek Stuffed Chicken Breast artichokes, roasted red peppers, spinach topped with a warm Greek dressing
orzo and spring vegetable medley

Indian Vegetable Curry
chickpeas, green peas, sweet potatoes, spinach, tomatoes
basmati rice, naan and pappadum

The cost is $50.00 per person.

